

theguardian 08.09.07

WEEKEND

A stupid, corrupt horse race
The Turner prize,
according to Damien Hirst.
What do the other 21 winners think?

hazelnut delights The secret life of the shed David Schwimmer Belting up for autumn Clouds

SPACE

1 Place one (or two, if you have the cash) of these crystal glass lamps on your bedside table and bring a bit of glamour to your sleeping space. Joanne table lamp, £85 (including shade), from House of Fraser, 0870 160 7270 (houseoffraser.co.uk).

2 Now this is what we call an armchair: decorative, generously sized and fabulously comfortable. Belfort chair, from £800, from Laura Ashley, 0871 230 2301 (lauraashley.com).

3 Jocelyn Warner's new, photo-real Flora wallpaper was inspired by old botanical prints. Her subtle use of metallic golds and silvers gives a traditional motif a contemporary lift. Flora wallpaper in Graphic, £69/10m roll, 020-7375 3754 (jocelynwarner.com).

4 You can never have too many ceramic bowls, and these are some of the prettiest we've seen in ages. Ingrid bowls: small, £18; medium, £26; large, £60; by Katrin Moye, 0115-911 8487 (katrinmoye.com).

5 If you need a coffee table then Frog, the latest addition to Naughtone's impressive range, is the one to buy; £675, from Greenwich Village at Selfridges, 020-7318 1359 (gvuk.co.uk).

Charlotte Abrahams

