

WHAT'S YOUR POISON?

Hedonism's high rollers tell all

STAR LIT

Kerry Katona and the new literary charge

The trappings of wealth

INSIDE THE GILDED CAGE OF DAPHNE GUINNESS

style

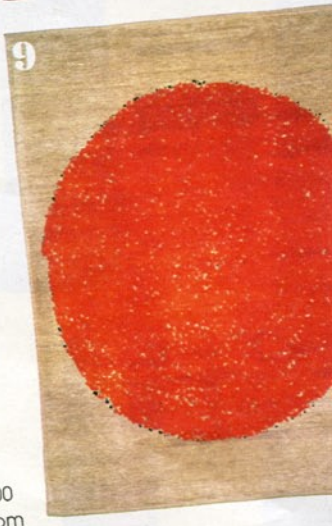

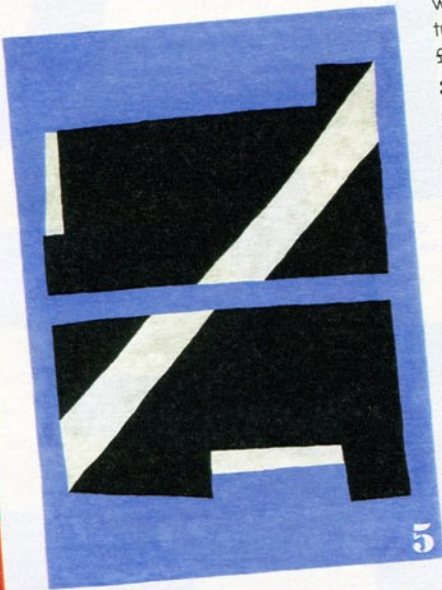

THE SUNDAY TIMES

OCTOBER 21, 2007

STEP ON IT

DECK YOUR FLOORS WITH SOME FABULOUS RUGS, SAYS PIP MCCORMAC

- 1 Home Temptations is one of the best websites for on-trend accessories. Kaleidoscope rug, £225, by Ports of Call; www.hometemptations.com
- 2 Having already reinvented toile and wallpaper, Timorous Beasties has turned its hand to rugs. Thistle rug, £1,980; www.christopherfarr.com
- 3 Jocelyn Warner is not content with designing beautiful wallpapers and lampshades — she's started an assault on the rug world too. Bloom rug, £1,600; www.jocelynwarner.com
- 4 Choosing just one rug from Woven Ground's fabulous selection is the hardest task. Amy rug, from £150; www.wovenground.com
- 5 Deirdre Dyson's handmade rugs display a purity of line and colour. Billine rug, £600 per square metre; www.deirdredyson.com
- 6 Dip into this season's purple trend with Ikea's Andrea rug, £140
- 7 Bill's Blanket rug started as a way for him to show off all his carpet colours, but it quickly became a design in its own right. £295, from John Lewis
- 8 Designers Guild manages to marry traditional quality with strikingly contemporary designs. Amellenborg rug, £690; www.designersguild.com
- 9 The Scottish weaver Kate Blee has worked with Donna Karan and is highly collectable. Chalk rug, from £2,750; www.kateblee.com
- 10 Eclipse rugs are hand-woven in Kathmandu. Ostriches rug, from £300 per square metre; www.lukeirwin.com