

London property

TUSK FORCE

A NEW LEASE OF LIFE FOR ELEPHANT & CASTLE P4-5

Own a share of a stately pile near London P7 ● Mortgages: paying more will cost less P15 ● Muswell Hillbillies P12 ● telegraph.co.uk/property

INSIDE...OUT

Cosy up to soft, snug textiles and keep out the winter chill, says Rachel Loos

WARM AS TOAST

Cuddle up to this woollen sloppy Joe hottie cover, with a hand-warmer pocket, part of Toast's home collection. £35, Toast, 0844 557 0460, www.toast.co.uk

CUSHION THE BLOW

A gorgeous floral pattern combined with the softness of silk makes the Amelie cushion a winner. £70, Designers Guild, 020 7351 5775, www.designersguild.com

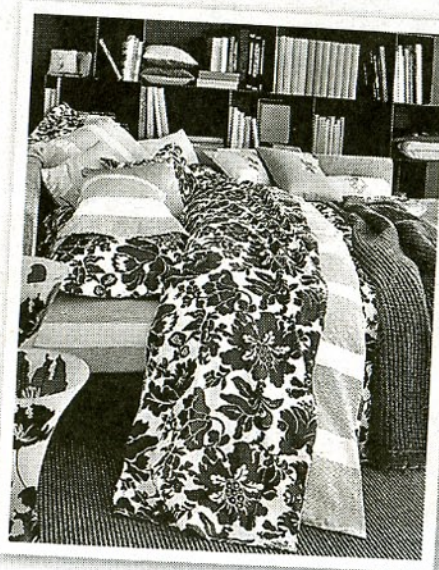

BIG BLOOMS

With its single peony flower nestled in green leaves, the Bloom rug made from 100% fine wool makes a real centrepiece. £1,600, Jocelyn Warner, 020 7375 3754, www.jocelynwarner.com

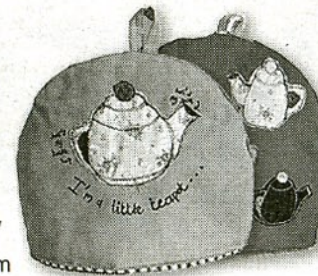

PRINTS OF BRIGHTNESS

With its striking op-art print, the Nina cotton and linen cushion (in blue/orange or black/red) will zing up any room. £35, The London Cushion Company, 0845 643 1571, www.thelondoncushioncompany.com

COTTON ON

Slip between sheets of the softest Egyptian cotton with this floral-patterned Burano bed linen from Yves Delorme. From £49.50, Selfridges, 0800 123 400, www.selfridges.com

HOT POT

Brighten your kitchen with one of Poppy Treffry's cheery tea cosies, handmade using vintage fabrics. £35, Poppy Treffry, 07800 896505, www.poppytreffry.co.uk

● Rachel Loos is Homes Editor of Grazia magazine

PULL THE WOOL
Stay warm outside - or inside - with these beautiful vintage Welsh blankets. From £85, Baileys Home & Garden, 01989 561 931, www.baileyshomeandgarden.com

Too much like

+ ONE SELLER'S VIEW

Janette Bacchetta, who lives in Upper Norwood, south London, is not convinced that EPCs are