

The Independent Magazine

Saturday 1 March 2008

The retro issue

Starring Pam Ayres,
Pac-Man, chicken Kiev, Amy Winehouse and the bearded bloke from the 'Joy of Sex'

TIME PIECES

Get the look of decades gone by with our guide to home decoration, old-school style

The Forties

Flora wallpaper (in slate) £59 per 10m roll, from Jocelyn Warner; green enamel lampshade £30, from Labour and Wait; enamel saucepan £30, from Labour and Wait; oak living room shelving unit £295, from After Noah; glass jug £26, glass salt vessel £10.50, both from RE; bronze bouquet £25, from Caravan; 300 Series telephone £260, from After Noah; broom £32, from Labour and Wait; station clock £135, from After Noah. For details of stockists, turn to page 41

COMPILED BY CLARE DWYER HOGG | PHOTOGRAPHY BY ANDY BARTER

The Fifties

Ernest Race chair £1,200, from Liberty; hand-knit tea cosy £22, and Brown Betty teapot £14, both from Labour and Wait; Stig Lindberg cushion (using 1950s Swedish fabric design) £42, from Twentytwentyone; Roberts Revival DAB radio £150, from Roberts; scribble wallpaper £99 per 10m roll, from Jocelyn Warner; industrial articulated lamp handmade to order, from £395, from Caravan; Jonathan Adler silver cat £25, from Liberty; Melaware cups and saucers cup and saucer, £8, side plate, £5, from Labour and Wait; Resonance rug £395 per square metre, from Loophouse